Pioneer High School

- History founded in 1856, Pioneer High School has held several names and occupied various buildings in its 150 years of existence. First known as the Union School, it has gone through various names and locations throughout its history.

- As of 2017, Pioneer High School is located at 123 Main Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan, 48109. It is a public high school with an enrollment of approximately 1,200 students.

- The school offers a comprehensive curriculum in academics, extracurricular activities, and athletics.

- It has a strong focus on providing a well-rounded education, preparing students for both college and career success.

- The school is recognized for its academic achievements, sports programs, and community involvement.

- Pioneer High School has been a part of the Ann Arbor Public Schools district since its founding.

- The school’s mascot is the Pioneers, and its colors are red and white.

- It is known for its rich history and tradition, with alumni who have gone on to achieve great things in various fields.

- The school is committed to providing a supportive and challenging environment for all students.

- It is located in a vibrant and diverse community, offering a unique educational experience.

- The school’s mission is to serve all students, assisting them in reaching their full academic potential and preparation for college and careers.

- Pioneer High School is proud of its strong legacy and looks forward to continuing its tradition of excellence in education.

- The school welcomes students from diverse backgrounds, fostering a sense of community and inclusivity.

- It is committed to providing a safe and positive learning environment for all students.

- Pioneer High School is a model for other schools, setting a high standard for excellence in education.