The curriculum is gendered in two main ways. 1) Different subjects are associated with masculinity and femininity. 2) Teachers teach different material or treat it differently.