 Sheikh Hamdan bin Maktoum, the Crown Prince of Dubai and the Vice President of the UAE, launched the National Action Plan for Women 2018-2021.

The plan aims to promote gender equality and women's empowerment in the UAE. It includes 15 initiatives across six areas, such as education, employment, health, and leadership.

The plan is in line with the UAE's commitment to gender equality and women's empowerment, as outlined in the UAE's Strategy for the Year 2021 and the Global Women's Agenda 2020-2024.

The plan also aims to promote women's leadership and participation in decision-making processes, as well as to increase women's access to education and training opportunities.

The launch of the National Action Plan for Women 2018-2021 marks a significant step forward in the UAE's efforts to promote gender equality and women's empowerment. The plan is expected to have a positive impact on women's lives, as well as to contribute to the UAE's efforts to achieve the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.
