
Learning theory defines how students absorb, process, and retain knowledge during learning. Cognitive, emotional, and environmental influences, as well as prior knowledge, play significant roles in this process.